

APIA PARK SPORTS COMPLEX

The Apia Park Sports Complex is another large multi-sport centre within Apia and houses the main stadium for both Athletics and Rugby 7s and is situated approximately two kilometres east from the centre of Apia. The Apia Park Sports Complex also hosts the sport of Tennis as well as the Opening and Closing Ceremonies. The Complex is one of Samoa's oldest and most revered sporting ground; the last major Games, as well as, retrofit of the facility in preparation for those Games, was the XIII South Pacific Games which Samoa hosted in 2007. Currently, the main stadium is home to the Samoa National Rugby Union Team, Manu Samoa, and will host the All Blacks in early July 2015.

Athletics

Athletics will be hosted at the Main Stadium for two and a half days of competition and is the only shared venue within SCYG2015. The main stadium has a seating capacity of 10,000, an 8-lane balsam all-weather synthetic 400m track which skirts the full sized rugby field. Also within the field is a long jump pit, a shot put circle, a discus circle, a high jump area and a javelin runway. Both male and female changing rooms with toilet facilities along with ancillary meeting areas for Technical Officials, and results management are available during Games time at the venue. Spectator seating is only partially shaded.

Rugby 7s

Rugby 7s will be hosted at the Main Stadium for two and a half days of competition and is the only shared venue within SCYG2015 and will transition from Athletics on the afternoon of Wednesday 09 September 2015. The main stadium has a seating capacity of 10,000, with a full sized World Rugby-approved grass pitch skirted by an 8-lane balsam all-weather synthetic 400m track. There are warm-up areas available behind the stands on the east for Teams' use immediately prior to their match. Each team will be allocated an exclusive area within the Team changing rooms located directly below the stadium seating with quick access to the pitch. Both male and female changing rooms with toilet facilities and showers are available. Also available are ancillary meeting areas for Technical Officials, and results management during Games time at the venue. Spectator seating is only partially shaded.

Tennis

Situated adjacent to the Main Stadium, is the Tennis venue with seven ITF standard courts, five of which have permanent fixed lighting. The courts have a plexi-pave surface with a two storey viewing platform and meeting/technical rooms. The same courts will be used for both practice and warm-up prior to daily competition. The venue has male and female changing rooms complete with showers and toilet facilities. The venue has a seating capacity of 570; the main seating area is shaded.
